Tips for Cooking with Coriander / Cilantro

- Gently heat seeds in a dry pan until fragrant before crushing or grinding to enhance the flavor.
- Crush seeds using a mortar and pestle or grind seeds in a spice mill or coffee grinder.
- Seeds are used whole in pickling recipes.
- Cilantro is best used fresh as it loses flavor when dried.
- Clean cilantro bunches by swishing the leaves in water and patting dry.
- For the best color, flavor and texture, add cilantro leaves towards the end of the cooking time.
- The stems have flavor too, so tender stems may be chopped and added along with the leaves.
- Store cilantro stem in a glass of water in the refrigerator, with a loose plastic bag over the top.

Pat beans dry and combine with dressing, green onion and radishes; season well with salt and pepper. Add

South Indian-Style Vegetable Curry

This easy one-pot meatless main gets its complex flavor from a combination of spices including coriander, cumin, turmeric, cayenne, and cinnamon. The spices marry in a rich, flavorful sauce that has a comforting, belly-warming appeal.

In a 5 to 6-quart Dutch oven or other heavy-duty pot, heat the oil over medium-high heat. Add the onion and cook, stirring occasionally, until beginning to brown, 3 to 4 minutes. Reduce the heat to medium (or medium low if necessary) and cook until the onion is richly browned, 5 to 7 minutes more. Add the garlic and ginger; cook, stirring, for 1 minute to blend the flavors. Add the coriander, cumin, turmeric, and cayenne; stir for 30 seconds to toast the spices. Add the tomato paste and stir until well blended with the aromatics, about 1 minute.

Add broth, coconut milk, cinnamon stick, 1 teaspoon salt, and ¼ teaspoon pepper and bring to a boil. Reduce the heat to medium low or low and simmer for 10 minutes.

Add the cauliflower, sweet potatoes, tomatoes, and carrots. Raise the heat to medium high and return to a boil. Reduce the heat to medium low, cover, and simmer until the vegetables are tender, 20 to 25 minutes. Discard the cinnamon stick.

2 tablespoons canola oil
1 large yellow onion, finely diced
4 medium cloves garlic, minced
1 2-inch piece fresh ginger, peeled and finely grated (1 tablespoon)
1 tablespoon ground coriander
1 ½ teaspoon ground cumin
3/4 teaspoon ground turmeric
1/2 teaspoon cayenne
1 tablespoon ground cumin
1 tablespoon tomato paste
2 cups lower-salt chicken broth or vegetable broth
1 cup light coconut milk
1 3-inch cinnamon stick
Fine sea salt and freshly ground black pepper

1 small cauliflower, broken into 1 1/2-inch florets (about 4 cups)
1 pound sweet potatoes, peeled and cut into 1-inch cubes
2 medium tomatoes, cored, seeded, and coarsely chopped (about 1 1/2 cups)
2 large carrots, peeled, and cut into 1/2-inch thick rounds (about 1 cup)
One 15 1/2 ounce can chickpeas, drained and rinsed
4 ounce baby spinach (about 4 lightly packed cups)
2 tablespoons fresh lime juice
1 teaspoon finely grated lime zest
2 tablespoons chopped fresh cilantro
Stir in the chickpeas, spinach, lime juice, and zest; cook until the spinach has wilted, about 3 minutes more. Season to taste with salt. Serve garnished with cilantro.

This curry only needs a basic brown rice or white basmati rice to be a complete meal.
